

Liver Support*

This formula promotes optimum liver as well as lymphatic system function by encouraging the normal removal of toxic materials and supporting the liver's normal regeneration sequence.***

The liver is one of the most important organs in the body and plays a vital role in digestion, hormone regulation, and detoxification. All hormones pass through the liver, including all steroid and sex hormones. In fact, all material in the body ultimately goes to the liver. This is a N-Acetyl Cysteine supplement with herbs and enzymes to promote liver health and healthy detoxification.*

- Natural Ingredients include a synergistic formulation of herbs and nutrients known for their ability to protect the liver, promote hepatic cell regeneration, and support detoxification.*
- Enzyme Blend includes lipolytic, proteolytic, and polysaccharolytic enzymes for effective delivery of the various ingredients.*
- Healthy Detoxification with this formula is the perfect choice to help counter exposure to various forms of environmental toxicity.* This product is also very effective when used to provide nutritional support before, during, and after a heavy metal detox or other type of aggressive cleanse.*
